Softball All-Conference Teams

The MASCAC Office has released the softball All-Conference teams for 2009 as selected by conference coaches.

Repeating as Player of the Year is Gina Stefanelli of Wilkes. Katie Morrissey has been selected as Rookie of the Year. Lindsay Hoerner of King's has been awarded Pitcher of the Year and Lisa Gigliello of King's has been named Coach of the Year.

Gina Stefanelli proved once again why she is the best player in the league with a .424 batting average and knocking out 53 hits, with seven of those hits being home runs. Stefanelli had a team high 37 RBIs. Katie Morrissey enjoyed a fine freshman campaign earning a 14-6 record at the mound. Morrissey pitched 139.1 innings with an ERA of 1.96. Lindsay Hoerner was dominating on the mound with a 16-6 record and a 1.95 ERA. Hoerner also got the job done at the plate batting .308 with 20 hits. Coach Gigliello is in her 15th season as King's head coach and has been named Coach of the Year for the second time in her career. She will look to guide her team into the NCAA Tournament where they will be looking to build off their success in the Freedom Conference Tournament.
